

Who is the Angel Network?

Angel Network of Cooperstown is a nonprofit organization affiliated with the Cooperstown Central School District. Our mission is to support local families facing financial hardship when other community resources have been exhausted.

What We Do

Angel Network provides assistance to families within the Cooperstown Central School District for a variety of needs, including:

- Backpacks and school supplies
- Summer camp tuition
- SAT prep classes and test fees
- College application fees
- Yearbooks for 6th and 12th graders
- New shoes and boots
- Winter clothing
- Period supplies for students
- Snacks for students in need
- Emergency gas or grocery cards
- Electric and fuel bills
- Holiday gifts for families in need

How to Request Assistance

If you or someone you know is in need, please reach out to us by email (cooperstownangel@gmail.com) or complete a request form on our website: <https://angelnetworkofcooperstown.org/request-assistance>

My Neighbor's Closet (MNC)

My Neighbor's Closet is an all-volunteer thrift shop where everything is FREE! If you can't visit in person but need specific items and live within the Cooperstown Central School District, Angel Network can arrange for a volunteer to shop on your behalf. MNC is open to anyone in the community; you do not have to be a Cooperstown School Family.

3097 Cty Hwy 11, Hartwick (Above the Freight Wheel Cafe)

Hours:

Tuesday: 9am – 12pm

Wednesday: 4pm – 7pm

Saturday: 9am – 12pm

Parking and entrance in the rear of the building

Holiday Gift Support - Now Accepting Requests!

Angel Network is once again offering assistance with holiday gifts for families struggling to meet basic needs such as housing, food, and gas. In 2025, we supported 105 students (grades K–12) with clothing, shoes, toiletries, and a few gifts off their wish list.

If you're unable to provide holiday gifts for your child this year, please complete our confidential Holiday Intake Form:

If you have questions or would like to sponsor a child, please reach out to us at: cooperstownangel@gmail.com

How to Support Angel Network

Cooperstown is a kind community that welcomes families, and Angel Network embodies this spirit. We are connected with local family resources and the school district, so we are well positioned to identify and meet the unique needs of financially vulnerable students and their families.

With a focus on discretion and individual attention, The Angel Network of Cooperstown has helped families for over 10 years and is truly a community effort that extends beyond the walls of school buildings.

Would you or your business like to support the work of The Angel Network of Cooperstown? Please consider DONATING LOCALLY either on our website OR by mailing a check to:
